

Dr. Anasse Bouhlal- Higher Education and TVET Regional Programme Specialist.
UNESCO Regional Office for the Gulf States and Yemen.

Anasse has worked in TVET and Higher Education for the past 30 years in Finland and other EU countries. Before joining higher education, he worked in the fields of industry. He was recently transferred to Doha from the Beirut Office, where he served since 2017 as the Regional Programme Specialist in Higher Education for the Arab States. He also had a one-year assignment at HQ in Paris. During this period, Anasse collaborated closely with Ministries of Higher Education in the entire Arab region. In previous periods, Anasse spent 4 years working for the Ministry of Higher Education in the Sultanate of Oman, Muscat, as Director of the Engineering Programs.

In Finland, he worked as a Professor at Tampere University (TAMK) where he was involved, among other things, in quality assurance, digital transformation, Research and Innovation, and the Internationalization of HEIs in the Euro-Med Region. He was elected Member of the Management Board and Senate of the Euro-Mediterranean University in Slovenia. Anasse has also been a visiting Professor at the Bordeaux School of Management and Le Havre University in France for several years.

Anasse is a Member of the Board of Trustees for the Finnish Institute in the Middle East.

Anasse is a holder of a Ph.D. in Technical Sciences and speaks Arabic, French, Finnish, English, and Russian.