

Eng. Dana Ahmed Alsalem

As the Head of Systems and Programs and the Head of Networks and Technical Support Section at the National Planning Council in the State of Qatar, Eng. Alsalem is an experienced professional in the field of Information Technology. Dana, who graduated from the American University of Sharjah with a Bachelor of Science in Computer Engineering, has been key in leading some important IT initiatives in National Planning Council such as the implementation of a cybersecurity roadmap for the FIFA 2022 World Cup in National Planning Council, the Open Data Platform, National Planning Council Azure and O365 Migration, Digital Transformation, and the successful execution of Qatar Census 2020. Dana has a wide range of experience, including supervising the development of the National Planning Council mobile application and the development of the National Planning Council website, which includes a variety of systems including the Foreign Trade portal, Census 2020 Reports, and Manual of Statistical Definitions, Concepts & Terms.