

Nada Abduljalil Al-Mahmeed

Nada Abduljalil Al-Mahmeed currently serves as the Director of Government Services Excellence Directorate in Qatar's Civil Service and Government Development Bureau (CGB). Before her current role, she was the Director of Translation and Training Center (TTC) in the Translation and Interpreting Institute (TII), in Hamad Bin Khalifa University's (HBKU) College of Humanities and Social Sciences (CHSS). In that role, Nada led multiple initiatives, including but not limited to increasing revenue generated by the Center, implementing initiatives related to social justice, providing students with internship opportunities, and leading change management efforts across the College. Nada joined TII in 2016 as a Senior Project Leader, where she has led strategic planning, stakeholders' relationships, as well as marketing and communications on the College level.

Nada kicked off her career in Qatar Development Bank (QDB) as a Corporate Planning Officer, and then she was promoted as a Corporate Planning Supervisor where she engaged in planning and strategy execution governance activities for more than four years. She revolutionized the organization's planning and enabled it to have a full and successful implementation of the Balanced Scorecard (BSC). Her work has influenced the active implementation of QDB's strategy and level of corporate and employee performance.

Nada holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and minor in English Studies from Carnegie Mellon University in Qatar, and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Cambridge in the United Kingdom.
