

Dr. Robert Bain

Robert Bain is a data and research specialist with UNICEF's Middle East and North Africa Regional Office and regional coordinator of UNICEF's flagship household survey programme - Multiple Indicator Cluster Surveys (MICS). Robert previously worked as part of the interagency team WHO/UNICEF Joint Monitoring Programme responsible for monitoring water, sanitation and hygiene SDGs at global level and holds a PhD in Engineering from the University of Cambridge.