Navneet Makhni

Navneet is an experienced leader in Data Governance, Data Management, and Data Analytics, with over 16 years in diverse industries including public sector, healthcare, retail, and financial services across the US, UK, UAE, India, Saudi Arabia, and Qatar.

As a Certified Agile Practitioner and Master Level Certified Data Management Professional (DAMA), she has a strong reputation for leading large-scale data programs and establishing national-scale data governance offices focused on policy creation and adoption. Her work has significantly impacted the public sector by improving data-driven decision-making and service delivery.